

Audrey Greenberg

Mayo Venture Partner

Audrey Greenberg is a Mayo Venture Partner passionate about building what doesn't yet exist and scaling it to serve the world. She has spent her career at the intersection of science, business, and bold ideas, helping launch companies that transform how healthcare is delivered. A serial entrepreneur and seasoned operator, Audrey has founded three startups after beginning her career in accounting, investment banking, and private equity.

As a passionate economic development enthusiast and champion of emerging technologies, Audrey serves on the boards of several industry and economic development organizations including the Alliance for Regenerative Medicine, Ben Franklin Technology Partners, Penn Medicine Abramson Cancer Center, Phacilitate, Women in Advanced Therapies, ISPE, Keystone Life Science Collaborative, and the CEO Access Network. She is also an active member of YPO.

Her work has been recognized with numerous awards, including the Titan 100 Hall of Fame, Most Influential Philadelphian, Philly Power 100, Medicine Maker Power List, Tech Translator of the Year, Deal of the Year, Employer of the Year, Healthcare Power Player, Women of Influence, Female Leader of the Year, Startup of the Year, Power Woman, and Young All-Star.

She is a CPA and holds an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

Audrey is known for her ability to commercialize cutting-edge technologies, forge transformational partnerships, and mentor emerging leaders. Most of all, she's driven by a desire to make things better...for patients, for communities, and for the next generation of leaders.
